ROYAL COMMISSION DELIVERS ITS REPORT

The Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse has now concluded its work and delivered its report to the Australian Government.

Very soon, we must begin to study the multi-volume report and consider the recommendations that the Commissioners have made. Then will be the time for a full response.

For now, we should acknowledge gratefully the work of everyone who has participated in the Royal Commission: especially those who have told their stories and those who have listened to them.
