“Martyrs of East Timor”

This week we remember the day in 1975 when East Timor declared their independence, which lead to terrible repression. In this film we remember some recent martyrs who gave their life in East Timor in solidarity with their persecuted people, by defending the rights of the poor, or for simply trying to bring healing and peace to others.

“God In Tibet”

This week in Australia we mark Human Rights Week. One important factor within human rights is religious freedom, and one country that has received a lot of attention in regard to human rights is Tibet. This film looks at the Southwest corner of Tibet, known as the 'roof-of-the-world'. Geographically isolated, a unique culture and tradition of Catholicism has survived, exceptional to Buddhist Tibet, and the present communist rule.
