

Congratulations

We extend our congratulations to one of our contacts, Associate Professor Christopher Newell, and Dr Gerard Goggin, for winning a prestigious award for their important book Disability in Australia: Exposing a Social Apartheid.

They were winners in the Arts Non-Fiction Award category of the Human Rights Medal and Awards conducted by the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC) annually. The award was presented at a ceremony to mark Human Rights Day and disability was at the forefront of these awards.

You will find more information and an order form at <http://www.acbc.catholic.org.au/documents/200801100.pdf>

The pastoral document 'I Have a Story' was nominated for The Rhodium 2005 ACT Chief Minister's Inclusion Award under inclusion in the community by an individual or team on Saturday 3 December 2005. The document was published by the Bishops Committee for the Family and for Life in 2004.

Although the document did not win the award, it was encouraging to have a Church document nominated for a secular award.
